Clark, has arranged to have Branson De Cou, who appeared before the Woman's club at one of its meetings recently and made such a favorable impression, come to Arlington tomorrow evening, April 4th, to give his illustrated lecture on "Wonderland in America." The lecture will be in Robbins Memorial Town hall. Tickets one dollar each.

FRANK SAVAGE TENDERED A SURPRISE

By Employees Of Boston City Club.

Frank Savage, of Court street, who for the past six years has been assistant manager at the Boston City Club, has severed his connection with this well known club and has entered the employ of the Ginter Grocery Company in a responsible position. That Mr. Savage was well thought of by his fellow employees and members of the club, is shown from the fact that on last Saturday morning, the employees of the club gave him a big informal surprise, when Mr. Savage was presented with a mahogany clock, a set of candle sticks and a large floor lamp. In order that Mrs. Savage might know something of the regard in which her husband was held by the employees, a large bouquet of roses was sent to her home. The surprises did not end here, for later a group of members of the club tendered Mr. Savage a dinner at the Engineer's Club, at which time he was presented with an amethyst ring set in green gold.

ARLINGTON BLUES WIN FROM READING

The High school basketball team, under the name of the Arlington Blues, is playing in the State Amateur Basketball tournament under the auspices of the Boy's Club of Boston, at the Charlestown Gymnasium. Tuesday night the tournament opened, when Arlington won by defeating the Reading Community Gymnasium in a score of 24 to 17. The Lane brothers and Marsters were the point makers for the Arlington team. This was the opening game for the Arlington boys, who have a good chance of winning the championship of their division.

DO NOT WISH SCHOOL NAMED FOR LATE F. W. HODGDON

Family Objects to Recommendation of Town Meeting in Communication Sent to School Committee and The Advocate. Several Other Suggestions Submitted.

6 Lombard Terrace,
Arlington, Mass.
April 2, 1925.
To the School Committee of the Town of Arlington.
Gentlemen:

The family of the late Frank W. Hodgdon has learned of the action taken at the last Town meeting at which his name was recommended as the name for the new schoolhouse to be erected on Lake Street.

While they fully appreciate the honor which the Town Meeting Members conferred on Mr. Hodgdon's memory by this recommendation, the family feel that under all the circumstances it would be best for your Committee to select some other name for the schoolhouse and are absolutely unwilling that the name of Frank W. Hodgdon be considered in this connection.

Yours very truly,
GRACE P. HODGDON
(MRS. FRANK W. HODGDON)

Perhaps the above letter fully explains itself, but for the purpose of informing our readers who may not be aware of what transpired at the town meeting held Thursday of last week, will state that Mr. William C. Drouet, a long time resident of Arlington Heights, presented a resolution in the early part of the meeting, asking that the new elementary school to be erected on Lake street, be named the Frank W. Hodgdon school, in memory of a man who had done much for his town and the state.

As might be expected, the resolution was unanimously adopted. The matter of naming the school is of course in the hands of the school Committee. The vote taken could only be an expression of the town meeting members voting on the motion.

Had they given the matter more consideration, we are sure they would have realized the inappropriateness of naming a school in that part of the town where neither Mr. Hodgdon or his ancestors had ever been specially identified. The above letter shows the feeling of the family in regard to the matter.

There are, however, several names that might properly be given to a public school where the new one is to be built. First, the name of Samuel Butterfield; second, Squire, and third Hardy. The first name, that of Butterfield, is associated with Arlington from its earliest history. The late John P. Squire came to Arlington in 1848. Ten children were born in Arlington at the corner of Lake and Mass. avenue; attended school in that part of the town, and there are today living there two of his children and several of his grandchildren. Where the Soldier's monument was built, Mr. Squire was one of the largest contributors.

Rodney J. Hardy (now deceased) came to Arlington about fifty-five years ago, occupying the house standing on land where the new school is to be erected. His children attended school in Arlington. He served on the School Committee as did also one of his daughters, Miss Mary E. Hardy. One of his sons is our present town treasurer.

While no one will dispute the interest shown in Arlington by the late Mr. Hodgdon, it will readily be seen that if a school be named for him it should be one nearer the home where he was born and brought up, the Wellington house on Pleasant street. The Junior High school centre would be a more appropriate school building to be named for this family. The Wellington-Hodgdon Junior High school might not be an inappropriate name.

MISS ELEANOR VAUGHN GIVES A DANCING PARTY

Last Saturday evening, March 28, Miss Eleanor Vaughn entertained twenty-one friends with a delightful dancing party at her home, 164 Park avenue in honor of her fourteenth birthday anniversary. The decorations used were in yellow, carried out with forsythia and yellow candles. The center piece of the table was of flowers and candles, and favor novelties. A large birthday cake with yellow frosting and candles, containing fortune-telling favors, was cut and served. During the dancing, varied favor and elimination dances were enjoyed and four awards were given to winning couples. The latter part of the evening a number of the parents joined the young people in the dance. Besides Arlington there were out of town guests. Among the latter were Janet and Betty Walker of Brookline and Janet and Helen Gale of Belmont, formerly of Arlington.

MISS NORA A. BROWN TENDERS SHOWER

A dinner party was given by Miss Nora A. Brown, Superintendent of Symmes Arlington hospital, at the Nurses Home on Wednesday evening, April 1st, in honor of three of the graduate nurses who have recently announced their engagements, Miss Olivia Humphrey to Mr. Henry Wolf; Miss Irene Moors to Mr. Alfred B. Hartford, and Miss Lena Marshall to Mr. Paul Chandler. After the dinner, there was a miscellaneous shower for each given by the members of the Alumnae. Everyone present spent a very enjoyable time and the prospective brides carried home very pretty and useful gifts for their hope chests.

MISS SUSANNA WINN READS A DELIGHTFUL PAPER

Between eighty and eighty-five members and friends of Arlington Historical Society gathered in the Jason Russell house Monday evening of this week. In fact there was such an unexpected number, that the house committee was somewhat embarrassed in providing chairs.

This interest was aroused from the announcement that Miss Susanna Winn would read a paper on "Reminiscences of Long Ago." Miss Winn, who spends her winters in Winchendon, came especially to read this paper which was on scenes she recollected in early childhood, as she went from her home on Summer street to the school then located at the corner of Franklin street and Broadway, where the fire station has stood for many years.

In opening her paper Miss Winn said we sometimes spoke of events that transpired B. C. She should add one more letter, making her paper speak of recollections B. C. W., which interpreted meant, before the Civil War. It was a story of a little girl of long ago so fascinatingly told that at its conclusion many expressed a wish that it might be printed in the Advocate. The editor will be glad to do so if Miss Winn will left the next day for Winchendon, is willing. If so it will appear in our next issue.

At the close of the paper, Miss Winn presented the Society a portrait painting of herself, taken when about five years of age.

Many lingered to inspect the house and its contents. The house opened Wednesday for the season. The hours are from 2 until 5 P. M. each day excepting Monday.

FIFTY LOTS IN LOCKELAND SOLD DURING MARCH

The Lockeland Real Estate Trust have, during March, sold fifty lots in that most desirable tract known as Lockeland. There will be dwellings erected on all these lots in the near future, many already having been started. David H. Buttrick has purchased the corner lot on Gray street and Churchill avenue, which is just opposite the H. A. Phinney house. It is one of the most beautiful in Lockeland, commanding as it does a wonderful view of the surrounding country. Mr. Buttrick will build a home there soon for his occupancy.

WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES

Monday, April 6, is the day to leave your waste articles for the Occupational Therapy Dept. of the Boston State Hospital at St. John's Parish House, 74 Pleasant street. If you have goods to be called for, please notify Mrs. Harold A. Yeames, Tel. Arl. 1241-W at once. Articles wanted are cigar boxes, tin tobacco boxes, pasteboard boxes; books and magazines; wide-mouthed bottles and jars; broom handles; burlap bags; Xmas cards; old hot water bags and any clean rubber; pieces of linoleum; crepe and wall paper; all kinds of clean rags; empty spoons; tangled string; odds and ends of knitting wools, embroidery cottons and silks.

TOTAL APPROPRIATIONS ARE $1,592,494.28

Town Meeting Finished Last Night

The remaining articles in the town warrant for the annual town meeting were disposed of at the adjournment held last evening in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, although adjournment did not come until 11.15. There were a number of lengthy debates on some articles, asking that streets be accepted, especially on a petition asking that a section of Amsden street and the end of Webster street be accepted. The Finance committee was opposed to this. William A. Muller favored the decision of the Finance committee and announced that he would finance the building of streets and assist these residents in putting the street in condition which then they might ask the town to accept.

The article regarding the filling in back of the Senior High school was turned down when it was brought out that the $10,000 asked for would be too small to complete the work. Action on grading the land about the new Central Fire Station was deferred until later when the project was explained by Warren A. Peirce.

It was voted to purchase or take by eminent domain land on Park Avenue for a new fire station, $18,000 being voted for the taking and erecting of a station on the land, the obstacles had appeared at the previous meeting in regard to this site having been cleared up.

It was evident that the meeting was not in favor of changing the zoning laws at the corner of Lake street and Mass. avenue, where a petition for a moving picture house had been received, and regarding another petition to change the law for land at the corner of Brattle and Summer streets.

The recommendations of the Finance committee in regard to purchasing the Foster land for school purposes was ignored and then favorably acted upon after a long debate.

Appropriations made were $9000 to remodel the Senior High school, the lunch rooms into class rooms and use the so-called swimming pool section for lunch rooms; $1,600 for an outdoor gymnasium at the Junior High Center; $750 for locker equipment at the High school gym; $1,000 for the employment of District Nurses; $1,500 for the decennial census; $26,640 for new streets; $3,805.04 for payment of old bills owed by the town and recently presented.

Conditions on Pleasant St. Do Not Please Residents

The quite recent depositing of sixty inch, steel pipes along the entire length of Pleasant street, has brought about changed conditions that are not specially relished by those owning property on this thoroughfare. As we understand the situation it amounts to this. When the depositing of these pipes began, the Selectmen called upon the contractor employed by the Metropolitan Water Commission for an explanation. This gentleman was able to convince the board that this temporary disposal of the pipes conserved both the interests of the commission and the town of Arlington and the required permit was issued.

We are informed that from now on the trench digging and pipe laying will go on at an average rate of one hundred feet each day, and that by the first of July Pleasant street will be returned to its normal condition. During this interval, people coming by auto to residents along this street will submit to inconvenience caused by the pipes with such of grace as they possess; children will use them to run through and shout in to thrill with echoes; boys continue to ride bicycles through this enticing tunnel from one side street to the next where a length of pipe has been placed opposite to the entrance. One of the worst features of this situation is the leaving in many instances of a space between lengths of pipe wide enough for a person to pass easily between. Out of these openings we have seen little children pass into the street, in several cases barely escaping being hit by a passing auto. Those open spaces ought to be securely closed.

When the work begins which we have been informed will be in about two weeks, it will start at Swan street and work up Pleasant. There will of course be a detour. The residents on the street, however, will be served as usual by tradesmen. Drive ways and side streets will be kept open. In the mean time let us hope no accident will occur.

F. ALFRED PATTERSON

Has Resigned From Board of Assessors.

F. Alfred Patterson who has served on the board of Assessors of this town for several years, has sent in his resignation to the Selectmen. It will be acted upon at a joint meeting of the Board of Selectmen and the Board of Assessors which will be called later. An appointment will be made later to fill the vacancy until the town meeting in March, 1 26.

COMMUNITY ORCHESTRA A CREDIT TO THE TOWN

Its First Concert, Under the Direction of Mr. Theron Perkins, a Splendid Musical Entertainment. Prospect for Permanent Orchestra of Promising Excellence.

Those who absented themselves from Robbins Memorial Town hall, Monday evening, when the Arlington Community orchestra gave its first concert, missed a treat, for not in many a day has there been such a splendid musical entertainment presented.

Strange as it may seem, there evidently are many in Arlington who are not aware of this group of Arlington musicians that have been meeting Sunday afternoons in old Town hall for the purpose of receiving the instruction in ensemble work under the skilful direction of Theron Perkins, who has won an enviable reputation as an orchestral conductor.

Mr. Perkins was first discovered by Miss Grace Gordon Pierce, the director of music in our public schools, who secured him as director of the girls' band of A. H. S.

Last year Mr. Perkins consented to direct an orchestra assembled at a short notice to give one of the programs in Arlington during Music Week. That Music Week was conducted under the auspices of the Music committee of the Arlington Woman's Club, the late Mrs. E. Nelson Blake being then the chairman. So it will be seen that there have been several factors combining to bring about the result that is so full of promise for the future.

Among this number is Mrs. Verne Q. Powell, who is now the chairman of the Music committee of the Arlington Woman's Club. She saw the vision of creating a permanent orchestra in Arlington that might some day boast of its Symphony orchestra. She, with her committee, composed of Mrs. James A. Bailey, Mrs. Llewellyn Evans, Mrs. E. L. Shinn and Mrs. Edwin L. Allen, began early in the fall planning to organize a group of musical people who on Monday evening gave their first public performance.

The players are both men and women. Some have had large experience, while others are young people who, but a few years ago were taking their first instructions in playing a musical instrument under the guidance of Miss Pierce. There is in the orchestra a grandson of the late Mr. A. E. Rowe of Arlington, who was a member of a similar orchestra the town then boasted of.

That there is splendid material in the group that has now organized under the name of Arlington Community Orchestra, was shown last Tuesday evening. They gave even their closest friends a genuine surprise. There was not a dull moment and there was at no time evidence of uneasiness with the audience. In fact, each number was accorded a most enthusiastic response for the conductor had his orchestra well in hand.

Miss Marjorie Moody, the well known soprano soloist, assisted in the program. Never was she more enjoyed. Her beautiful voice which she handles so exquisitely, was heard to advantage in her varied program. She was most generous in her encores and gave evidence that she was enjoying her part in the program. Her singing is as finished as any we have been privileged to hear in many a day. Her highest notes are given with that bird-like quality that is enchanting. The numbers given with Mr. Verne Q. Powell's flute obligato, were poems in music.

Another soloist that showed rare ability, was Miss Hildegard Berthold, who is a teacher in our High school. She plays the cello beautifully and has a magnetic charm that adds greatly to her artistic playing. She was also generous in her encores. The solo for the English horn, given by Mr. L. W. Sabin, was the third

ARLINGTON AND THE ADVOCATE

The other day a friend of the Advocate was kind enough to tell us that we were printing a "fine looking paper." Of course, the compliment was pleasing, for the newspaper man is as vain as the rest of mortals. Or if he does lack vanity, he is not a good newspaper man.

We conceive it the duty of every self-respecting publication to be a mirror of the best ideals of the community. This is accomplished not merely by the intelligent chronicling of events as they transpire, but in presenting the news in a manner which makes it easy to read from a typographical standpoint. Nothing is more abominable to the average reader of the home-town paper than the recording of an event written carelessly, abounding in mis-spelled words or printed haphazardly, as is often the case, without regard as to where the ink happens to hit.

A clean newspaper reflects a clean town. In the more than half a century that it has been our province to record the joys and the sorrows, the smiles and the tears, the successes and the very few failures, of the community life of Arlington, it has been our constant endeavor to adhere to our own deep conviction, that in giving our best we were not giving too much.

The task which was ours in the days of fifty years ago, when we printed by hand, two pages at a time, on a press such as Franklin used, was laborious; but we never wavered, and a perusal of those early editions, still easy to read, fills us with a sense of pardonable pride.

Through all the years since, we have strived to keep the paper clean; attractive typographically and carefully edited, giving in its columns, no place to the things which might detract from the wonderful heritage of this intelligent pioneer American community, but being always alert to the disseminating of those events which reflected its glory.

In the forward march of progress, it will continue to be our aim to build a little better newspaper to reflect a little better Arlington.

EASTER AND ITS MESSAGE

We wonder if the material side of Easter, with its weeks of preparation, dressmaking, fashion parades and things of kindred nature, have not eclipsed the spiritual. If this be true, it may simply be a reaction. We well remember the time when Easter dawned and passed without the slightest sign in the town where our boyhood was spent that a day or an event other than the ordinary of daily life had arrived. What was true in regard to that town applied with equal certainty in every New England town and village. In cities where there were Catholic or Episcopal churches, Easter was observed by them, but by none others. All this is now changed.

Whether participated in as a religious service or used as a festival occasion, Easter, like Christmas, is each year claiming a larger number of glad participants and we hope with an increased proportion of people realizing its deep significance. Even those who go to church twice a year only,—on Christmas and Easter—have that much to their credit.

We are a great and a prosperous nation. In a larger proportion than with other peoples there are happy homes because all legitimate wants are so well supplied. The liberties we enjoy, equality in opportunity that is the heritage of all, come to us from the teaching of the Christian church, the fountain head. Why not think of this and realize personal obligation when this year the Resurrection Morn dawns.

TO CORRECT AN ERROR

There has been issued in connection with and advertising the pageant to be given during the week of June 15, a twelve page folder, printed in two colors, with a picture of the amphitheatre on which the varied events of the pageant will be staged. In outlining "the road to the play" in the folder, mention is made of "Jason Russell house in Arlington where Jason Russell and eleven others were captured and disarmed by the British." A small monument now marks the site of that Jason Russell house. The lettering on that monument reads:—

"Site of Jason Russell house where he and eleven others were captured, disarmed and killed by the retreating British, April 19, 1775."

There is a wide difference between being disarmed and captured and making the supreme sacrifice in defense of one's honor and rights.

BATTLE OF LEXINGTON PAGEANT TO BE BROADCAST

How country wide is interest in the approaching one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the Battle of Lexington has been brought to our notice in a variety of ways. The latest comes from Rensselaer, N. Y., announcing that at ten o'clock on the evening of Monday, April 13, WHAZ will broadcast a pageant entitled "The Minuteman." The first project of the kind ever attempted.

The pageant, which is in six parts, was written by Walter S. Clark, Superintendent of City Schools, Rensselaer, N. Y. Each scene of the pageant will be short with a dramatic climax. Music characteristic of the period will be introduced between each scene. The first part of the pageant takes place at Province House on Marlboro street, Boston, the afternoon of April 18, 1775 and is entitled "The Brawl." British soldiers and minutemen engage in a fight which was characteristic of the times. The second part deals with a scene in Paul Revere's home where the plan for the ride is made known to Robert Newman. Part three gives in detail the hanging of the signal lights, the midnight alarm, a home scene at Medford thirty minutes after Paul Revere has passed on his ride and the scene at the Clark house in Lexington at one o'clock where Samuel Adams and John Hancock were awakened from sleep by the cry, "The British are coming." Following the ride scenes, radio fans will hear Captain Parker giving final instructions to his men, and then the battle of Lexington will be fought. The retreat of the British after the fight at Concord bridge will be featured in the two scenes that follow. The final part of the pageant is laid at Fort Crallo, Rensselaer, N. Y., where the song, "Yankee Doodle" was written. The original version of "Yankee Doodle" will be sung and the pageant will end with a pledge of allegiance to the patriot's cause.

PLAYROOM A NECESSARY PART OF CHILD'S TRAINING

Massachusetts Department of Public Health says that all children should have a playroom, or a play corner in another room. It should be their own—where they can play their games, read their books, think their own thoughts, and perhaps do a little quarreling without interference from their elders. This is invaluable training in cultivating independent thinking, initiative, and the knowledge of how to play (and later on work) with others.

A sunny, airy place, which can be easily cleaned, is best. Toys and books should be arranged within easy reach, and care should be taken to have the lighting right and the furniture correct in height.

Expert Radio Installation

If you are thinking of putting in a radio set, why not do it right? It is by far the cheapest in the end. Radio is a highly technical industry and your results will depend on how your set is built, apparatus that is in it and its installation. Guess work in radio is very unsatisfactory and many times more expensive in the end. I offer you 20 years' experience in Electrical, Mechanical and Radio Engineering. If you take my advice on your radio equipment, I guarantee you full satisfaction and furnish you with any advice or coaching that you may need. I can furnish you with references from others who will gladly tell you what my services have done for them

Lenten Thoughts

Rev Charles F. Patterson
Minister of the First Universalist Church

The shadow of the cross makes a sombre path down thru the ages, so that all at some time must feel its chill, stop to read its lesson and seek to understand the purpose which made this, His toric tragedy, inevitable. Said the apostle, "The Captain of our salvation was made perfect thru suffering." The transmutation of evil into good. Tho the cross may have other lessons for us—one of its most helpful suggestions is that if Jesus must win perfection thru suffering, then we the more must win that measure of perfection possible to us there by.

If we believe the aim of life to be merely happiness here and now, then we can find no justification for pain. If we believe that not primarily happiness but the rounding into perfection of human souls, the development of character are the purposes of God, we approach the problem from a new standpoint. In the light of belief in an endless life, taking the long look into the eternal years, we can see that the question of our immediate good, is unimportant compared to the question as to whether the years of the present are bringing us experiences that make for the increase of the riches of the inner life. If we learn to accept our trials not as burdens but as challenge, if we can say with the Psalmist "All thy waves and storms have gone over me" and yet turn to God in trust in the moment of our cry, we shall know the blessing which even trial can yield. In such moments we find the ruins of our hopes builded anew into temples of devotion and character; the clouds of failure and loss are tinted with the colors of the rainbow of promise. Countless are they who have never begun to understand all that life has to offer, until the things they thought absolutely necessary have been taken away. Says the cynic, "When poverty comes in thru the door, love flies out thru the window." Perhaps where love was not deep and true, but otherwise love becomes the stronger—its preciousness finds greater recognition.

The unfolding rose gives forth a fragrance born not alone of sunshine but of storm as well. The tree grows thru the sunshine and the calm but it yields no fruitage unless it has borne up thru gale and drought. We have all seen men and women seemingly enslaved by evil, thrown into the very arms of God, there to cling in trust and there to gain strength for new life and all thru the instrumentality of what the world calls sorrow, and suffering. As another has said, "The great leaders of the world, the star crowned kings and deliverers of men, were all men, who walked hand in hand with pain, who drank the wormwood and rue of life in daily draughts. All real crowns have been crowns of thorns."

Thus the shadow of the cross is a pathway that ends in light.

A WORD OF WARNING ADVISED BEFORE ARREST IS MADE

Charles F. Ford of 16 Russell street, has written us asking that we publish the following editorial clipping from one of the leading newspapers of Boston. (Editor).

Judge Bruce Talks Straight.
"A police officer who hasn't been in my court in a month or two, I consider more efficient than the man who is always in court."

These words, uttered by Judge Charles M. Bruce of Malden police court recently, contain sane reasoning.

And they contain sound advice to policemen, new and old. There are policemen in Boston and other cities who so thought it seems, is to roll up a record of arrests. Many times they arrest, where a word of warning would suffice.

This is not, of course, to be confused with a policeman's action in event of a felony. In serious cases there is only one course open, and that is to land the offender behind the bars with the greatest possible dispatch.

But for trivial misdemeanors, arrest is not always the right solution.

Judge Bruce further said:
"An officer who can handle his beat nicely and without trouble has a good head. On the other hand, if he wants to, he can cause a great deal of trouble."

There are few of us who do not know policemen of both types. An officious policeman can and does cause a great deal of trouble. The policeman who at the end of a year can point to fewer appearances in court has far more reason to feel proud of his work than the officious trouble-maker who can chalk up 300, mostly for slight offenses.

For the former has shown he has the personality and courage to enforce the law "on his own" without dragging offenders into court. And he shows that he has the good will of those on his beat which, after all, is the greatest asset a policeman can have.

It does not mean that he must be a "good fellow." That type slips sooner or later and their "good fellowship" boomerangs. Honesty and common sense are excellent qualities.

Arlington, March 3, 1925.

I, E. Caroline Pierce, the duly elected and qualified Town Clerk of the Town of Arlington, in said County of Middlesex, hereby certify that the following is a true copy of Article 7 of the warrant for the special meeting—January 20, 1925—of said Town in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-five, duly called, warned and held, and that the following is a true copy of the vote duly passed at the adjourned session of said meeting duly held on February 13, 1925, when said Article 7 was before said meeting.

Article 7. To see if the Town will adopt a by-law or by-laws relating to billboards, signs and other advertising devices; or take any action relating thereto.

HELEN E. BARR GIVES
VESPER RECITAL

At the Orthodox Congregational church last Sunday afternoon, Helen E. Barr, the soprano in that church quartet, gave a vesper recital that was worthy of a larger gathering than were present. Probably, however, the severe rain storm interfered with the attendance for those familiar with Mrs. Barr's talent are aware that she is usually accorded a large audience when announced to sing.

Recently she gave a recital of Mrs. Beache's songs, accompanied by this well known composer that was most favorably commented upon by Mrs. Beach and the musical critics.

On last Sunday Mrs. Barr was heard in two numbers from Handel's Messiah. They were "Where'er you walk," and "How beautiful are the feet." These are tuneful numbers and with the skilful handling of her voice so finely trained, Mrs. Barr gave a most enjoyable rendering. The number, "Hear Ye Israel," from Mendelssohn's "Elijah," taxes the ability of any singer in no small way, but Mrs. Barr was equal to it. Her voice rang out in bell-like precision even in the highest notes. Her last two numbers, Negro Spirituals, were "Steal Away," by Brown and "Deep River," by H. T. Burleigh. Never has the writer heard them more beautifully sung. They were a sermon in themselves. The organist of the church, Walter N. Kilburn, gave several numbers.

The minister, Rev. Don Ivan Patch, gave the second address in the series of three on, "Three Cries," of the human soul. The first discussed March 15th was "Bread." Last Sunday the subject was "Wisdom." Mr. Patch's thought was that wisdom, or knowledge, availeth us nothing if not used to develop Christian character; to have a sense or understanding of the needs of our fellow-men and a willingness to help those who need our help, is showing that we have acquired wisdom.

The service on next Sunday will be the last in the series. The church quartette will furnish the music. The topic of Mr. Patch's address will be, "The Cry to God."

The following musical program will be given:

Organ Recital at five minutes of four, Walter N. Kilburn, Organist.
Organ Prelude, a Aux Pasques, Miller, b. Tocatta, Gigout.
Anthem, "Praise the Lord O My Soul," Mozart.

Responsive Reading
Anthem, "Panis Angelicus," Palestrina.
Scripture.
Bass Solo.

Prayer
Organ Response
Offertory, Andantino, Lemare.
Hymn.

Anthem, "Come Unto Me," Bach.
Organ Postlude, Choral.
Helen E. Barr, soprano; Susie D. Carman, alto; Paul R. Bennett, tenor; Charles H. Grant, bass. Walter N. Kilburn, organist.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES

HOLD GET-TO-GETHER SOCIAL

The Young People connected with the First Parish Unitarian, the Orthodox Congregational, the First Universalist and the First Baptist churches, held what might be called a Get-To-gether social Friday evening of last week in the vestry of the First Parish church. The first three mentioned societies each gave a number for the entertainment that afforded no end of enjoyment for each was quite different in character.

The First Parish Young People's Guild put on a minstrel show, in which Debler Townsend, Fred Brackett, Gordon Merrill, George Ryder and Corey Morash were the entertainers, and they did it in true minstrel style. The Young People's Christian Endeavor Society of the Orthodox Congregational church gave what they called a "Shadow Cabaret." Those who took part were Richard Bird, Dorothea Johnson, Winthrop Potter and Donald Jones. The Young People's Christian Union of the Universalist church put on "A school room scene," acted out by Cleora Russell, Marjory Patterson, Homer Collins and Eugene Hesselstine. The Baptist young people gave no number, but were the spectators.

Miss Ruth Davis is the president of the Orthodox Congregational Society; Proctor Michaelson, of the First Parish; Howard Dawes, of the Universalist Young People, and Miss Esther Alsen of the First Baptist Y. P. S. C. E. The evening closed with general dancing to the music of the Langley orchestra. Punch and cookies were served.

LEGION NOTES

Our last meeting, March 24, 1925, was a decided success. Every seat was taken and a good deal of enthusiasm was evident. Tom Rafferty, former player with the Detroit Americans, gave us a mighty fine talk and we should be grateful to Comrade William Parr for securing him for that night.

We have just received quite a few of the testimonials given by the State to those of her citizens who served the Colors in the World War. If you have applied for one through Arlington Post No. 39, come up and get it. Someone in headquarters practically every evening.

We still have some Adjusted Compensation Blanks available for those who haven't as yet applied for their Compensation. Glad to help you fill them out. Remember, there are no strings on this offer.

April 19th will soon be here. At last Arlington has realized, more so than in previous years, that April 19th means as much to the town as it means to Lexington and Concord. In fact, if history is to be believed, perhaps Arlington should have more prominence than has been the custom to give her. Arlington Post No. 39, The American Legion, is preparing for a BIG TIME, on this day. Chief of the Post's activity that day is the Patriot's Day dance, to be held in the Robbins Memorial Town Hall, on Monday evening, April 20th, 1925, at 8 P. M. Plans are practically completed and public announcement will be made in these columns later.

Send this paper to a friend out of town. It is like a long weekly letter from home.

NEIGHBORHOOD MEETING OF THE SOCIAL ALLIANCE

Monday the Social Alliance of the First Congregational Parish (Unitarian), held a Neighborhood meeting in the vestry of the church, when there were present, representatives from fifteen Alliance Branches in this vicinity, which, together with members of the local branch, made a large company.

Mrs. A. J. Wellington, the president, gave a pleasant greeting to guests and introduced the program of the afternoon. Mrs. James Hill gave a group of three songs, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Edwin L. Allen. They were "The Morning Wind," by Branscombe; "The Brown Bird Singing," Wood; "The Brownie," Leoni. The other entertainer was Mrs. Stella Marek Cushing, violinist, who also gave three numbers explaining each in her charming way. They were "Humoresque," Dvorak; "Humming Bird," Drala, and "Fairy Tale," Komzsch. Miss Abbie Hesselstine was at the piano. That the musical program was thoroughly enjoyed was expressed by the hearty applause of the audience.

The speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Capek of Prague, Czechoslovakia, who had only that day arrived in Boston, coming with her husband to attend the meeting of the National Unitarian Association. The audience had the first opportunity of hearing of the wonderful work that Mrs. Capek and her husband, who formerly was a Baptist minister, are doing among their people along Religious Education. They have organized a Unitarian church in Prague and its wonderful growth was the subject of the speaker's talk. She told of audiences of two thousand that gather every week in the church to listen to the sermon preached. A church devoid of heat or seats—the people standing for an hour before the service begins on cold stone floors to hear the message of the preacher.

Mrs. Capek in a quiet manner, but full of charm, told a pathetic story but also one of hopefulness to those who are seeking to bring comfort through the Unitarian belief to these people, about whom we are now hearing so much.

A tea followed in the parlor, served from a prettily appointed table, where daffodils were the centre piece. Mrs. J. Q. A. Brackett and Mrs. Benjamin A. Norton pouring. Mrs. William F. Homer and a large corps of ladies were in charge, serving coffee and fancy cakes.

BANISHING THE SCOOTERS

Quite recently Arlington streets have been placarded with notices forbidding the use of any sidewalk by riders of bicycles, scooters or any similar vehicle. In consequence the police station has been under frequent call over the telephone from people protesting the order, there has been some warm talk also along the same line.

The By-laws of Arlington contain a section which prohibits every sort of vehicle, except a baby carriage, from being ridden or drawn on the sidewalk. This bars bicycles, tricycles, scooters and the like. The law is plain and will be operative until repealed. The fact is that only recently has the scooter been largely in use. Because of the abuse made of leniency on the part of the police in not at once putting a stop to its use on sidewalks, there came to headquarters numerous complaints from pedestrians who had suffered inconvenience or worse, and posting the notices followed.

There was another strong reason. Fortunately none of the users of scooters has been injured, but the police have seen a number of very narrow escapes. Boys have come scooting down steep sidewalks to streets crossing at right angles, barely escaping passing autos.

COLLEGE DANCE AT WINCHESTER COUNTRY CLUB

There was an interesting group of college young men and women who attended the dancing party given by Mrs. A. J. Wellington, Mrs. William G. Rice and Mrs. John R. Foster, at the Winchester Country Club, Saturday evening of last week, for their daughter, Miss Virginia Wellington, who is a Wellesley girl; Elizabeth Rice and Helen Foster, who attend Smith college. There were about ninety present, noticeably a surplus of college men as this has been vacation in several of the colleges.

The hall looked fascinating with balloon decorations in all colors, the lovely gowns of the girls adding to the picture. Mrs. Wellington and Mrs. Rice received in black lace toilettes, while Mrs. Foster was in cocoa brown crepe. Miss Wellington was in red panne velvet and gold lace, Miss Rice in yellow taffeta and Miss Foster in red crepe de chine.

Mr. Percy's orchestra played for dancing. The ushers were Alton Tupper, Brooks Davis, Coryell Rice, Edward Bailey, Morrill Bott and William F. Homer, Jr. During intermission, ice cream and cake were served.

ARLINGTON BOY PRIZE WINNER
IN SPRAYER POSTER CONTEST

Carl M. Carlson of Arlington was among the High school pupils who received a prize of one dollar for a spraying poster contest that has just closed by the Middlesex County Extension Service, in which some 1000 children entered. The first prize of $5.00, went to John MacKellar of Malden; the second of $3.00, also to a Malden boy, while the third, $2.00, was captured by Margaret Hall, of Concord, Mass. Eight received a prize of $1.00 each.

Mr. Fred Reed, head of the art department at Framingham Normal School, Mr. W. A. Munson of the bureau of markets and Mrs. N. P. Draper of the Extension Service acted as judges. They found the task of choosing the winners a difficult one. The competition was keen and many posters were of nearly equal merit. The idea conveyed by the poster and its power to urge better spraying was considered as most important. The artistic merit was considered next in importance. Many clever and interesting posters could not be included among the prize winners because of the great quantity of good posters received.

ROBBINS LIBRARY
New Books

Among the new books in demand at the Robbins Library this month is to be found an interesting variety—something for all who enjoy the "gentle art of reading," whether it be fiction or non-fiction.

Fiction

"Arrowsmith," a story of a physician, by the author of "Babbitt" and "Main Street," is the most talked of book of the month. It is considered "the most complete portrait of an American professional man ever achieved in fiction."

"Orphan Island," by Rose Macaulay, is an amusing satire on mid-Victorian customs, and is more human even than "Told by an Idiot." Sabatini's new book, "The Carolinian," is a stirring tale of Revolutionary days, and is his first book with an American setting.

"Autumn" and "Winter," the first two books in a series entitled "The Peasants," by Reymont, deal with peasant life in Poland. Mr. Reymont was awarded the Nobel prize for literature in 1924.

"Shadow Captain," by Knipe is a tale of the sea, pirates and treasure trove.

"Matriarch," by Stern is an interesting chronicle of a family during several generations, with two outstanding characters, the old "Matriarch" and the new.

Jeffrey Farnol's "Loring Mystery" is a good thriller.

"Alias Ben Alibi" is typically "Cobb" as "Bill the Conqueror" is a characteristic Wodehouse book.

Non-Fiction

The new non-fiction is headed by Barrett Wendell's "Letters," which have a double interest for New Englanders. He was a master in the art of letter-writing and now in this book "his personality is, as it were, laid bare."

To the devotees of the "Americanization of Edward Bok," his "Twice Thirty" will need no introduction.

"Whaling," by Charles Boardman Hawes, will be welcomed by the "young of all ages" who love the sea—and if they have not yet read "The Dark Frigate" and "Mutineers," there are hours of sheer joy before them.

A travel book of more than usual interest is "To Lhasa in Disguise," by McGovern, the story of whose wanderings in Tibet reads like a mystery story.

In the realm of science there is Wiggam's "Fruit of the Family Tree," some new thoughts on the old subject of heredity.

On the poetry shelves there have appeared among others, "Anthology of Magazine Verse for 1924," compiled by Braithwaite, "Little Book of Modern British Verse," compiled by Rittenhouse, and "Ad Somnum," a book of verse by Edward Viets, a former Arlingtonian.

FROM THE PACIFIC COAST

Last week we received a letter from Commander George H. Averill of Post 36, G. A. R., who with his wife is spending several months on a visit with their son and family at Hollywood, California. The writer speaks of sight seeing trips among and over mountains 5,000 feet high; through deep valleys and amid enchanting scenery; then mentions of four other trips to be taken before returning. The return trip will include visit to the Grand Canyon, a skirting of the Mexican border and what show places are available.

Mr. Averill says "We are having the time of our lives. They want us to remain here permanently, and it is surely attractive, but good old New England is good enough for us and we shall be back in Arlington about the first of May. It has been like summer here all through the winter months, flowers everywhere and mocking birds singing their heads off. The days have been for me fearfully hot, but the nights are cool. It would take me a month to write you about wonderful sights we have enjoyed, so will wait until I get home to tell my story, if the boys care to hear it."

Mrs. Averill is a charter member of W. R. C. No. 43, a past president and a specially honored member. We are quite sure she will have an interesting story to tell her associates.

GIRL'S CLUB TO BE FORMED AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

A meeting of the girls of the Senior High school was called Tuesday afternoon, for the purpose of forming a Girl's club in the schools. All three classes were represented, the sophomores showing the greatest interest. Mrs. Moffett, class advisor to the seniors, opened the meeting and outlined its purpose. Miss Helen Stokes was chosen chairman, Miss Cora Riley, well known in educational circles, was the speaker after which there was a question box. There were vocal numbers by Miss Mary Schrodde, readings by Miss Doris McCarthy and Miss Fiona Braithwaite. It was voted to call another meeting within a week. Dainty refreshments were served in the lunch room.

"DISTRICT SCHOOL" GIVEN

By Members of Willing Worker's Circle.

The "District School" was commendably given on Monday evening, March 30th, in the vestry of the Calvary Methodist church by the Willing Worker's Circle of the Ladies Aid, assisted by other members of the church. The vestry was packed and many stood during the performance but so ludicrous and entertaining was the program, that this proved no hardship. The antics of the pupils, who were dressed as old fashioned as possible, their remarks to the questions of the teachers and the committee, kept the audience in gales of laughter.

Henry Ade, as Samuel Snooks, was the hit of the show and his speaking parts not only added to the merriment of the evening but his facial contortions provoked hilarious laughter from the spectators.

The first scene was the school committee room, where the members were debating and cross-examining applicants for the position as teacher. The committee was Mr. Fred Robinson, Mr. Wathan Robinson and Mr. P. A. Zeigler. The teachers were Miss Dashiway, Mrs. C. W. Ross; Miss Belinda Sharp, Mrs. Walter Carl, and Miss Simple, Miss Elizabeth Wallace. Mr. Albert H. Morris as Mr. Pendergrass was the favored teacher who was appointed.

The second scene was in the school room during recitation of lessons and routine work and the third scene portrayed the last day of school with the exercises of graduation, songs, recitations and speeches with the school committee present. Sim Tipsey (Harold Berrie), Luther Brown (William O. Lovejoy), and Samatha Piper (Mrs. Ethel Kinney), gave solo numbers with Mr. Carl Nelson accompanying at the piano. Norman Walkinshaw as Obediah Buzzard, the "negro" boy sang a popular hit. The visitors to the school for the closing day were Mrs. Anne Wallace, Mrs. E. L. Hackett and Mrs. Henry Aide.

The following was the cast:—Sim Tipsey, Harold Berrie; Bobby O. Lee, E. F. Hall; Samuel Snooks, Henry Aide; Mehitabel Jones, Mrs. M. Hathaway; Samatha Piper, Mrs. Ethel B. Kinney; Luther Brown, W. O. Lovejoy; Sally Brown, Bernice Walkinshaw; Matilda Billings, Mabel Boyne; Faithful Snooks, Janet McLean; Jerusha Dickson, Elizabeth Wallace; Clarinda Geyser, Mrs. C. W. Ross; Ruth Ketchem, Irene Gray; Susan Crowfoot, Louise Fader; Dorsas Dottle, Lillian Hoyt; David Snooks, Earl Bancroft; Billy Crowfoot, Harold Hamm; Obediah Buzzard, Norman Walkinshaw; Stephen Tucker, Eugene Watt and Jeremiah Jenkins, Arthur Gaskell.

Mrs. Ethel B. Kinney, chairman of the Circle, was in charge of the evening. Candy was sold, in charge of Mrs. Walter Carle, Mrs. Whipple and Mrs. A. S. Fader.

ARLINGTON ROTARY CLUB

Rev. Frederic Gill, pastor of the First Parish Church, was the speaker at the meeting of this club, Wednesday noon, his theme being "lawlessness and order." Early in his talk he quoted a remark made some years ago by Chief Justice W. H. Taft, "The administration of criminal law in this country is a disgrace to our civilization," and then by a series of incidents proved his case. He divided the blame he believed rested on courts, with the Legislature so prone to enact laws interfering with personal rights. These Dr. Gill believed were largely the source from which the lawlessness now prevalent emanated, but that the unfair advantage the wealthy man had over the poor man was a contributing factor. Every good citizen believes in even handed justice and if it falls in courts as now conducted, ultimately there will be an overturning.

At the business session, Harold Cole, chairman of the committee that staged the recent show, gave revised figures on receipts and expenditures. The receipts totaled $2,050.50; the expense was $858.00, leaving a net profit of $1,194.06. On motion the Woman's Aid Assn. of Symmes Arlington Hospital was awarded $200; the District Nursing Association, $300.00. The balance was placed in the hands of the charity committee.—Messrs. Hopkins, Hutchinson, Taintor, Angus, Cole.

Messrs. Taintor, Higgins, Hardy, Wunderlich and Eberhardt were appointed to arrange for and stage a field day for the benefit of the Boy Scouts.

The committee appointed to nominate a list of officers for the ensuing year consists of Messrs. W. D. Clark, W. H. Peirce, M. E. Moore, J. A. Bishop, W. K. Hutchinson, Jr. Arlington Rotary Club was represented, at Stoneham, last Monday evening, by thirteen people who participated in the exercises incident to a celebration of the first anniversary of the instituting of the Stoneham Rotary. This club has the honor of being the only club able to report a one hundred percent attendance of members at each meeting during the year.

MIDDLESEX SPORTSMAN'S MAKE MERRY

The members of the Middlesex Sportsman's Association were given a merry time Tuesday evening at the club house, when the much heralded "Surprise night," by McReavey and his gang," was put across. An unusually large number of members attended, and there was something doing until late in the evening. Opening the program was a black-face skit by Bradford Swift and Herbert McReavey. This two-man minstrel show kept things humming for some time and there were but few of the well known members of the club who escaped some kind of a knock. Roger W. Homer, in his usual genial style, added to the evening by acting as master of ceremonies. Fred Russo of Somerville entertained with a group of popular songs. Roscoe C. Young gave readings, N. J. Hardy gave a short speech, having been asked to sing, and Freeman N. Young added with a boost for the club.

UNION BOWLING LEAGUE
HOLD BANQUET AND ELECTION

The Union Church bowling league came to a glorious close on Wednesday evening, with a banquet to the teams, their wives and ladies served in the vestry of the Calvary Methodist Church by a group of efficient ladies of the church, served to 135. The officers of the league were also elected for another season and prizes awarded.

The tables were arranged in the order in which the league had finished the series. Calvary Church team was first.

Joseph C. Ohlund presided and presented Rev. H. L. Stratton, pastor of the Park Avenue Congregational church, who presented the prizes. The first prize silver cup went to Calvary Methodist, and second cup to Church of Our Saviour. During the banquet, James A. Clancy of the local alleys, appeared with a large silver trophy for which the teams in the league are to bowl, beginning this year. To keep the cup it must be won two years in succession.

Calvary Methodist, which has won the first leg, is made up of Carle, Dalgleish, Bently, Hughes and O'Brien. William Solomon of the Heights Methodist church won all three high prizes, high average, single and high three string, but as only one could be taken, he chose the high average. The officers elected were, Harold H. Patterson, president; William Solomon, vice-president; Alden Hatch, secretary; Joseph C. Ohlund, assistant secretary; Frank Hughes, treasurer and A. B. Craft, assistant treasurer.

Entertainment was furnished by the X B H orchestra of the Park Avenue Congregational church, with readings by Miss Boynton and an English comedian skit by Sutton brothers. William Hamilton of the Tremont Temple Brotherhood Bowling League told what his league is doing.

ARLINGTON LOCALS

—Miss Elizabeth Rice who is a student at Smith college, has been entertaining her cousin, Eleanor Vansant of Philadelphia.

—Miss Ellen Greer of Wyman street, has been spending the past week at Melrose, Mass., the guest of Mrs. Moulton.

—The food sale held at the Arlington Gas Light Office on Saturday afternoon, March 28th was most successful. A varied assortment of baked goods, including baked beans, brown bread and fancy cakes found sale in the numbers who attended. The Mission Circle of the First Universalist church arranged the sale, the following members were in charge: Mrs. Clara Kimball, assisted by Mrs. C. F. Coolidge, Mrs. J. G. Luffkin, Mrs. P. R. Moody and Mrs. Ina Pratt.

—A serious fire was narrowly averted Monday night with the prompt arrival of the fire department and its efficient work, which saved the home of Michael Stachia at 35 Dudley street from being badly burned. The cause of the fire is not known, although after examinations it appeared to have started in the refrigerator, where bread was kept. It ate through the back of the ice box into the adjoining walls and into the partition between the front entry and the kitchen. The damage will probably be about $200.

—Twenty-eight Arlington and Lexington friends were the dinner guests of Mr. Haviland Stevenson on Friday evening of last week at the University Club, Boston. Exquisite table decorations carried out with the lavender sweet peas, purple fleur-de-lis and yellow daffodils, imported place cards, and corsage bouquets for the ladies with boutonniere for the gentlemen, made a fascinating table. Cards followed the dinner, when the host further showed his generosity in the expensive souvenirs awarded the six highest scorers, with two consolations. Mr. Stevenson is president of the Silver, Burdett & Company of which Mr. William M. Hatch of this town is a member, and until recently, Arlington has been his place of residence. He is now located in Newark, N. J., where the firm has its main office.

SILVER LENTEN TEA

A delightful "silver tea" was given at the home of Mrs. F. B. Wadleigh of 16 Swan place on Monday afternoon, March 30th. Mrs. Geraldine Taylor sang several numbers accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Ernest Hesselstine and Mrs. Grace Tuttle also contributed to the afternoon's program with readings. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in a social way, when refreshments were served by the hostess. The following assisted Mrs. Wadleigh in arranging the afternoon and carrying out the plans: Miss Nellie Moody, Miss Augusta Sundergren and Miss Helen Harding. The proceeds of the afternoon will be used for the Mission Circle of the First Universalist church.

CUTTER SCHOOL PUPILS GIVE

A PHYSICAL DEMONSTRATION

The pupils of the Cutter school gave a demonstration of physical training Tuesday afternoon in the school hall, that reflected great credit both on the pupils and their teachers and instructors. Each class had a number, no two being alike that created an interest to the large number of parents and friends of the pupils who crowded the hall.

The first four grades were under the direction of Miss Helen Gallagher, physical director at this school, and the fifth and sixth in charge of Miss Katherine McCarthy, supervisor of the girl's physical training in the schools of the town. In addition to the work of the directors, the teachers had much to do with the demonstration carrying on the work to its successful conclusion.

Miss Elizabeth Clark, first grade teacher, acted as pianist during all the drills and rehearsals and on exhibition day, with the execution of the classes of Miss Hazel Ripley and Miss Edith Willey, who played for their own classes.

To try and pick the best was almost an impossibility. From the little tots in the sub-primary to the larger children in the sixth grade, the work was one of precision and accuracy due to careful and painstaking training on the part of the teachers.

The program opened with the sub-primary (Mrs. Hunt); who did a shoemaker's dance and the Chimes of Dunkirk dances; Grade One (Miss Clark and Miss Avery) presented "Little Miss Muffett" and "Coming Thro the Rye" dances; Grade two, (Miss Knowles and Miss Ripley) gave the Children's polka and Seven jumps; Grade 3, (Miss Barber and Miss Loring), Drill for girls, led by John Schultz. Clap dance and Indian club race; Grade 4, (Miss McPeck and Mrs. Hurd), Mimetic exercises; Grade 5 (Miss Merrill and Fogg), wand drill; and Grade 6, (Miss Curtis and Miss Willey), boy's drill and stunts, girl's dances, Varienne and Irish Lilt.

WEEK-DAY PULPIT 1st Congregational Parish

Minister, REV. FREDERIC GILL, D.D.,
15 Devereaux Street

"Deity" means being God: "Divine," as Unitarians use it, means having in one something of the God-like spirit. We believe that Jesus was a man, and not God. We believe very strongly that every man has in him something of the divine spirit. To us Jesus is divine: in him we find the brightest and fullest manifestation we know of the working of God in men. He is the man of the spirit, the great revealer of God, the supreme leader in the life of the spirit, lifted by the spirit into compelling wisdom and power. In him we have contact and communion with God at its highest, finest point. He is, in his teaching, his character, and his influence an inspiring example of how the divine spirit works in men. Unitarians hold Jesus in reverent honor and love simply because he is admirable and lovable. We do not worship Jesus, because, among other reasons he himself, taught us, by both word and example to worship God—his Father and ours.

Your Gas Man

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

Millions of women no longer fill coal buckets, carry ashes, split kindling or soak corn-cobs in cold oil to do their cooking.

Neither do they carry buckets of water to do the washing, or use the tea kettle to heat water for the bath.

Modern gas service, the burden bearer, has stopped such drudgery forever. It has brought leisure and health and independence to countless millions.

How seldom we think of such things! Yet if gas service were to stop tomorrow we could never quite adjust ourselves to its loss. In the twinkling of an eye, the clock of civilization would be turned back one hundred years.

Arlington's New Fire Station Novel In Its Main Features

Is Unique in Design and Artistic in General Effect

At our request Architect G. Ernest Richardson of McNaughton & Robinson, who furnished the plans and who is personally supervising the construction of Arlington's new fire station, has supplied a detailed description of the building which we are sure a majority of our readers will read with pleasure. Mr. Richardson writes as follows:—

The triangle-shaped lot at the junction of Massachusetts avenue and Broadway, with Franklin street in the rear, is soon to become an attractive spot. Landscape artists have planned improvements, which with the grading of Massachusetts avenue to a level with the lot, the removal of the old fire department house and the completion of the new Central Fire Headquarters, will constitute a civic centre of great beauty and usefulness.

The new stately building now nearing completion is the first of its kind in the United States and is the last thing in motor apparatus houses. The building is in general octagon shape, two stories high with a tower 13 feet high, and is built of brick with stone trim.

The basement, which is reached by a driveway from Franklin street, contains an appropriate machine shop which occupies one-half of the basement on the Massachusetts avenue side. The other one-half accommodates the wire department, including ample space for their repair wagons; also, a whistle tank room, boiler room for the heating plant and a coal pocket. In the basement portion under the tower are two rooms for a public convenience station, one for men and the other for women, entirely separated from each other and from the other parts of the basement, and entered by stairs, on either side of the tower, from outside of the building. The entire basement is of concrete construction and ample areas admit plenty of daylight.

The first floor is an open space without posts or other obstructions and the six large apparatus doors permits an entrance and exit for the apparatus without any backing in. On this floor, under the tower, is the watch room with its gongs, indicators, etc., entered from the public entrance door, and the room is trimmed in stone. Stairs, toilets and hose hoist are also in the space under the tower. The apparatus floor is of concrete, the walls have a dado seven feet high of salt glazed brick, the remainder of the walls, to the ceiling, being white sand lime brick. The ceiling is beam paneled. On the Franklin street side entirely separate from the main part of the building, except by fire resisting doors, is an absolute fireproof structure for the fire alarm department, the first floor comprises the office and battery room and the second floor the signal apparatus.

The second floor of the main building contains living quarters for officers and men. Facing the monument is the Common Room with its massive and ornamental stone fireplace. On the Massachusetts avenue side is the Chief's office and bed room, and two rooms for the accommodation of three men in each room. On the Broadway side are four rooms accommodating fourteen men. In the centre is a large patio lighted by a large skylight and in this centre portion are located sinks, ice box, stove, pantry, benches, bubbler fountain and built in seats. Off of the patio are toilets, showers, drying room for wet clothing, closets, lockers, etc. On the Franklin street side are two rooms, one for the use of the wire department; also, linen and storage rooms, shower rooms and toilets.

The tower section of the building contains ample space for drying hose, with a bell deck, a whistle machine and is surmounted with a compressed air whistle 85 feet in the air and of sufficient size and force to be heard in all parts of the town.

The electrical installation both for light and power and for fire alarm purposes is modern and in every respect up-to-date. The plumbing and heating is the best of materials and workmanship. The building was designed by Geo. Ernest Robinson, Architect, formerly of the firm of MacNaughton & Robinson, who has given it his personal supervision during its construction.

MAXIM—WATTS

Last Monday evening, March 30th, at a very pretty home wedding, Miss Elizabeth R. Watts became the bride of Mr. Horace C. Maxim at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Watts, 404 Mass. avenue. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Archiver J. Strait, pastor of the Calvary Methodist Episcopal church of Arlington, at 7 o'clock.

Miss Marie D. Harold of Cambridge was maid of honor and Mr. Ray Blaisdell of Reading, class mate of the groom at Bates College, class of '19, was best man. The ushers were Albert G. Watts, brother of the bride; George H. Morison of Springfield, brother-in-law of the bride; T. B. R. Bryant of Boston, Dartmouth 1920, and Frank Hatch of Arlington, a member of A. H. S. faculty.

The bride made an attractive picture in a bridal gown of ivory satin and duchess lace with a beaded train falling from the shoulders. Her veil was held in place with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor also made a pretty picture in her gown of blue tulle. She carried a shower bouquet of tea roses.

A reception followed from 8 o'clock until 9.30, during which music was furnished by Kenneth Reed's orchestra. The bride and groom stood under a canopy of maiden hair fern and longuils. The other decorations were huge baskets of bright colored flowers, potted plants and palms that formed a lovely setting for the bridal party. The Hardy Catering Company served refreshments.

The groom presented his bride with a string of pearls with bracelet to match and the bride's gift to the maid of honor was a silver links bracelet, set with sapphires. The groom's gift to his best man was a green gold belt buckle with silver trimmings and to the ushers, green gold cuff links.

After a motor trip to New York and vicinity, the bridal couple will reside at Ashland, N. H., where the groom is principal of the High School.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Watts of 404 Mass. avenue. She is a graduate of Arlington High School, class of 1921. Since then she has been secretary to the principal of our High School. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maxim of Pittsfield, Maine. He is a graduate of Bates College, 1919. He was, before going to Ashland, a teacher in Arlington's High School.

PROF. ROBERT BURNHAM

Gives An Interesting Demonstration Of "Making Up" At Friends Of The Drama Meeting.

The meeting of the Friends of the Drama was held at St. John's Parish House on Thursday afternoon, March 26, at 2.30 o'clock. Mrs. George Moody, president, conducted the business.

Miss J. W. Whitaker was chairman of program, which consisted of a group of solos finely rendered by Miss Marguerite Shedd with violin obligato by Miss Alice Holmes, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Eugene Vinal. Miss Shedd sang, "I Have A Little Cottage," by O'Hara; "Spring Flowers," by Reineke.

Prof. Robert Burnham, member of Faculty of Emerson College of Oratory, was the speaker and gave a lecture and splendid demonstration on "Aids to Production of Drama."

The Professor, who is a professional "make-up man," held the closest attention of his audience as he demonstrated his points by "making-up" various members of the club. Miss Shedd gave for the closing number of the program, a splendid rendition of "Spring is Here," by Marshal Loepke.

HEIGHTS BAPTIST CHURCH SPECIAL SERVICES

During the week of March 23, there were held special Lenten services in the Heights Baptist church every evening, that drew together large audiences and when an inspiring message was heard from out of town ministers. Special musical programs were arranged by Harvey Giles, with Miss Grace Champlin as accompanist.

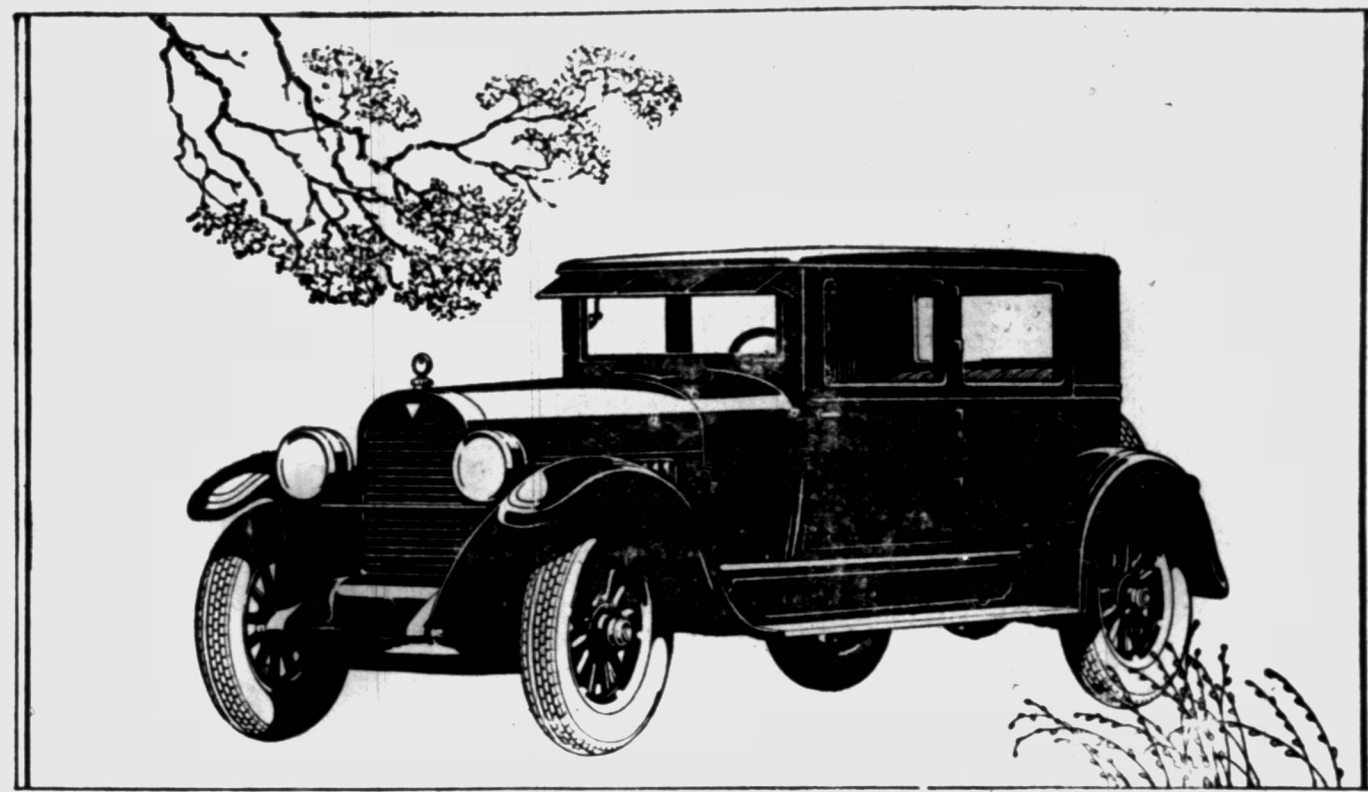

Rev. Obed J. White, D. D., of Belmont Street Church, Watertown, spoke at the first service, Monday, March 23, and the music was by the A. F. G. Brotherhood Chorus. Tuesday evening, Rev. A. R. Rideout of the First Baptist church, Waltham, addressed the gathering and duets were rendered by Miss Priscilla Freeman and Marcus Arnold. Rev. Charles L. Page, of Boston Baptist Bethel City Mission Society, spoke Wednesday evening, the music being by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Woodworth. On Thursday, Rev. J. Harrison Thompson, of the Ruggles Street Baptist church, gave a splendid address and tenor solos were sung by James A. Nickerson, of Lexington. Friday evening, March 27, Rev. D. J. Neilly of the First Baptist church, Medford, preached. A male quartette, made up of Messrs. Stevens, Woodbury, Jones and Wharton, gave selections.

ST. JAMES THEATRE

"The First Year," Frank Craven's well-known comedy of married life will be presented by the Boston Stock Company at the St. James Theatre next week. Frank Craven wrote this play and played the leading role himself in a down-town theatre last season. The Boston Stock Company is producing it now at popular prices. It is a simple tale of the homely everyday incidents of married life in the early stages. The big scene, for instance, is the arrival of guests for dinner while a new maid serves it. Excitement reigns high as the various courses are served, for the big feat is whether or not she will make a fatal breach of etiquette in her service. The "in-laws" and a bachelor uncle provide many opportunities for merriment as well. Bernard Nedell will play the role originally played by Frank Craven, that of "Tommy Tucker." Elsie Hitz will play the bride part. There are very good roles for Anna Layng, Louis Leon Hall, Olive Blakeney, Roberta Lee Clark, Roy Elkins and Ralph Remley.

BRADSHAW MISSIONARY ASS'N ALL DAY MEETING

The Bradshaw Missionary Association of the Orthodox Congregational Church, will hold an all day meeting Monday, April 6th. The sewing under the direction of Mrs. Wm. Hatch, will begin at 11 o'clock. At 12.30 luncheon will be served. At 3 o'clock the regular missionary meeting will be held. The speaker is to be Mrs. F. B. Bridgman, of Johannesburg, South Africa. Mrs. J. M. Dick will sing two solos. This is the annual Thank-offering Day. The last sewing meeting was a great success and it is hoped more will show

ARLINGTONSPORTS*ARLINGTON AND DEDHAM BASKETBALL TEAMS SPLIT

The High school basketball team ended its season with what might well be termed a double header with the Dedham High team, although one game was played on Friday evening at Dedham and the other here on Saturday evening. In the Friday evening clash, the Dedham High won by a score of 26 to 24. Colbert of the Dedham team making the winning basket in the last minute of play, which gave the game to his team. This was the 19th win for Dedham out of 21 games. Both teams played well. Arlington was a bit handicapped by the low ceiling of the Dedham gym, that interfered with the style of play with which they are most familiar, long shooting. Arlington had a little lead on the Dedham team at times through this game, but were unable to hold it.

The second teams of both schools also had a game Friday, when the honors again went to Dedham by a score of 15 to 13. An overtime period of five minutes had to be played to break the tie. The score for the first team was as follows:—

DEDHAM H. S. ARLINGTON H. S.
Bates rf. Marsters lf. J. Lane
Colbert lf. Marsters lf. J. Lane
Walton c. Marsters lf. J. Lane
Grant rb. Marsters lf. J. Lane
Spillane lb. Marsters lf. J. Lane
Score Dedham H. S. 26 Arlington H. S. 24. Referee Sanders.

The Saturday night game, played on the home floor of A. H. S., resulted in victory for Arlington. The home team played in a style not witnessed here before this season, and before a large gallery. It was a battle royal. One team fresh from victory and full of confidence and the other bent on marking up a defeat as a last mark of the season. A rubber game has been suggested to be played to break the tie, thus caused by both teams winning a game. Arlington scored the first basket. The first quarter ended Arlington 4, Dedham 2. The next quarter, Dedham took the lead, the half ending Dedham 7, Arlington 6. With the opening of the third period, the Arlington boys put on a fresh spurt which ended, Arlington 15, Dedham 9. The closing quarter was the battle. In this both Dedham and Arlington showed their best work. It was nip and tuck, with the score just a basket between the tieing of the score at times, but Arlington surged ahead as the quarter lengthened and won out 17 to 13.

The second team came back strong after Dedham second team and won out 31 to 12. Not once was the Arlington score in danger in this game and they had a comparatively easy time in making the win.

In the first game some of the shots were almost hair raising. Marsters scored all the baskets from the floor for his team, playing one of the best games of the season. The other players each had many tries for baskets and missed by small margins.

The score:—
ARLINGTON H. S. DEDHAM H. S.
Marsters rf. Marsters lf. J. Lane
Walton c. Marsters lf. J. Lane
Keefe rb. Marsters lf. J. Lane
Crosby, Cnty. B. Marsters lf. J. Lane
Spillane lb. Marsters lf. J. Lane
Score Arlington H. S. 17, Dedham H. S. 13. Referee Sanders.

BOWLING NOTES

Elks Team The Champions; K. of C. Team Wins Second Place.

The Town Bowling league came to a close with the matches rolled on the Arlington Alleys Thursday evening of last week, ending in a very close bunch. The Elks team won the championship with 48 games won. The real interest in the matches last week was to see who would be the winner of second place. The Knights of Columbus, winners of the league a year ago, and the Town Team, second place men a year ago, have been fighting for second place. When the teams met on last Thursday evening, the K. of C. team had won 41 games and Town team 38. On Thursday the K. of C. dropped three points but by winning one, they wiggled out into second position, thus closing the season with 42 wins against 41 by the Town team. The Elks dropped all four points to the Regent Alley team, but the latter finished in cellar position, a place they held practically all through the league but by a small margin, having won 39 points. The high single string of the season was rolled by Sam Johnson of the Regent team, with 142 and the high three string total was rolled by J. V. J. Kelley of Town team with 352.

Jimmy Clancy's bowling team, rolling under the name of Arlington in the Suburban League series, has taken another step toward the top position. The leaders in the league had a little hard luck last week, while Arlington rolled to victory and advanced toward the top once again.

The Community Club bowling teams held a lively session in the Arlington Alleys Friday evening of last week. A race developed for the high single string of the evening. The honors went to Whitcomb of Team F with 115, while Nichols of Team E was a close second with 114. Hunter of Team B came in third with 112. Benway of Team A was the high three string roller with 305. In the matches Team A won three points from Team E; Team F won three points from Team C and Team D won all four from Team B.

SPORTS COMMENT

The call for the baseball squad was issued the latter part of last week. Coach Henricus has been attending a convention in New York this week and Perry Bean had the squad in charge. There is plenty of material and judging from the manner in which it lined up at the opening, the success of the team is assured. The season will probably open with a game here on April 20, in connection with the exercises appropriate to the 150th anniversary of the Battle of Lexington, or better still, the 150th anniversary of the day the British soldiers met resistance in Menotomy, as Arlington was then called.

As a grand wind-up of the season, the various basketball teams of the schools will play the faculty of the Junior Highs and Senior High. The schedule will run for about a week. It will be necessary to call in a member of the faculty of one of the other schools to help make the team.

ARLINGTON LOCALS

—Mrs. L. W. Swett and daughter have been spending a few days in Washington. They have been staying at the Grace Dodge Hotel.

—Sunday night an automobile operated by Kenneth G. Hineman, of 26 Leighton avenue, East Lexington, crashed into a telephone pole on Mass. avenue near Robbins road. The machine was wrecked and the owner shaken up considerably.

—Some in town arose Tuesday morning when the "all out" came for a fire that had run in at 5.45, thinking it was the 6.45 test signal. The fire was on Mystic street. Some even had breakfast before they realized that they were up just an hour ahead of their usual rising time.

—Early Tuesday morning on an alarm from Box 271, the firemen were called to the transformer station of the Edison Company on Mystic street, near Russell street. One of the fuse boxes had caught fire making quite a blaze. It lasted but a few minutes.

—The members of Arlington Council, Knights of Columbus, will receive holy communion in a body in St. Agnes Church next Sunday morning. They will meet at their hall on Mystic street at 6.45 and march to the church in a body to attend the 7.00 o'clock mass. After the mass a communion breakfast will be served in Old Town Hall.

—Sunday (Palm Sunday) evening at 8 o'clock in St. Agnes' Church, there will be musical vespers sung by the choir of thirty-five voices under the direction of William F. Kelley, director. The soloists will be Mrs. Frances O'Hearn and Miss Alice White, sopranos; Mrs. Mary Quinn Delany, alto; William F. Kelley, tenor; John R. Hendrick and Bernard Kelley, basses.

—A short time ago two bicycles were reported as having been stolen from the barn owned by Dr. Guy E. Sanger on Mass. avenue. The bikes were the property of his two sons. The boys saved their pennies and a week or so ago they bought new machines. They were kept in the barn. Last Friday night one was stolen. This second visit to the barn makes it apparent that some one knows where the machines have been kept.

—Completing a delightful three weeks' cruise in Southern waters, Miss E. W. Marsh has arrived in Los Angeles on the Dollar round the world liner President Harrison. Boarding the steamer at New York, Miss Marsh visited Havana and Panama before disembarking at Los Angeles. Before returning to Arlington she plans to tour California extensively, spending the early spring in Santa Barbara and Carmel and later visiting Yosemite Valley.

—Friday afternoon of last week was the day for the Arlington Circle of Florence Crittenton League to entertain at the home, which is 701 Massachusetts avenue, Boston. Mrs. Llewellyn Evans is chairman of the program committee of the local circle and had the afternoon in charge, assisted by Mrs. Earl Atkinson. A trio from the New England Conservatory of Music, made up of violin, cello and piano, gave selections and two young ladies from the Curry School of Expression were heard in reading, all of which offered a most pleasing entertainment for the thirty-five girls who were in the Home. At the close of the program, ice cream and cake was served to the girls.

—A week ago some gypsies stopped at the filling station of the Petrol Company on Mass. avenue, near Fessenden road for gasoline. While the man was pumping the gas one of the party went inside the building. After he left money was missed. The case was reported at the time but it was not until last Thursday that the police were able to clear up the case. The man who runs the filling station got a tip that gypsies were in the neighborhood again and he transmitted the tip to the police with the result that an automobile full of men and women were rounded up. The party was taken direct to District court in East Cambridge and charged with the theft of the money from the filling station and also one man, who said he was Dasher Stevens of Lowell, was charged with operating an automobile without a license. The court did not find them guilty on the theft charge, but did on the second charge. A fine of $5.00 was imposed and paid.

RECENT DEATHS

GEORGE MYRICK JENKS

George Myrick Jenks, a resident of this town for the past thirty years, passed away at Symmes Arlington Hospital on Friday, March 27th. He was born in Nantucket, March 21st, 1847, the son of William Henry and Lydia Barnard Myrick Jenks and came to Boston when sixteen years of age and lived in Cambridge, but later in Arlington. He was a member of one of the old families of Nantucket, his mother a direct descendant of Polly Way of Philadelphia, who was the daughter of Captain Myrick of the first whaling fleet of Nantucket. His great uncle, Hon. Samuel Jenks, was the instigator of education in Nantucket and set up in the parlor of his home the first printing press in Nantucket and published the first newspaper there. For a great number of years the family have been prominently identified with the affairs in Nantucket. He was also a grandnephew of Rev. William Jenks, a former pastor of the Old South Church.

While in business, he was associated with the firm of Plympton & Fiske, wholesale milliners but for a number of years previous to his death was connected with the accounting department of the Boston & Maine railroad.

Previous to his residence at 241 Broadway, Mr. Jenks with his family made his home at the Brooks house that stood on Mass. avenue and recently torn down to make way for the new fire station. Following the death of Mrs. Jenks, which occurred in 1906, Mr. Jenks moved to 241 Broadway and has resided with his daughter, Mrs. George L. Fiske. Mr. Jenks and his brother were the oldest members of the Suffolk No. 8 Lodge of Odd Fellows, where they joined in 1870 and 72. He was also a member of the Nantucket Association. He was of a fine and dignified nature and the many who came in contact with him held him in high esteem and regard.

Funeral services were held on Sunday, March 29th, from St. James' Episcopal church, Cambridge, where he was a member, at 3 o'clock in charge of the rector, Rev. Ernest M. Paddock. Music was by the full church choir and the ritual services were held. Interment was in the family lot at Cambridge Cemetery and Rev. Mr. Paddock gave the committal service.

Besides his daughter, Mrs. George L. Fiske, Mr. Jenks is survived by a brother, Roland Myrick Jenks and a sister, Mrs. Lydia Myrick Cummings of Somerville.

EDWARD HOLBROOK KINGMAN

Friends in Arlington as well as in West Somerville, of Edward Holbrook Kingman, were shocked to learn of his death, which occurred Thursday, March 26, from cerebral embolism at hotel Thelma at Lakeland, Florida, after only a few days' illness.

Mr. Kingman, who was a commission merchant at 19 Faneuil Hall Market, Boston, under the firm name of E. H. Kingman, having been established since 1894, has for the past seven years gone to Florida during the winter in the interest of his business. Each year he has been accompanied by his wife, who was with him when taken ill.

His two sons, Stanley R. Kingman of 21 Gould road and Dr. Winslow M. Kingman, the osteopathic physician of 374 Massachusetts avenue, hastened south when they received word of their father's critical illness and arrived before he passed away.

The deceased was born in East Bridgewater, Mass., April 2nd, 1861. He was a charter member of West Somerville Lodge A. F. & A. M., also of Soley Lodge A. F. & A. M., a former president of the Boston Fruit and Produce Exchange and of the Boston Branch National League of Commission Merchants. He had been an Alderman of Somerville from 1905 to 1909, inclusive. Last July Mr. Kingman and wife moved to Arlington, taking up their residence at 34 Foster street.

The funeral services were held Tuesday, March 31st, at 11 A. M., at the Third Universalist Church of West Somerville, the Rev. Alfred Cole, pastor of the church officiating. Mr. Ralph Ben Ellen, organist. Burial was in Elmwood Cemetery in East Bridgewater.

Besides his wife, Florence W. Kingman, and two sons, already referred to, the deceased is survived by two sisters, Mrs. E. L. Emerson of Braintree, Mrs. F. H. Bates of Whitman, also one brother, Mr. James Kingman of Newton.

EMILY TOLMAN

Emily, daughter of the late Rev. Richard Tolman and Olivia Sweetser Tolman, passed away at the family residence, 695 Massachusetts avenue, Saturday, March 28, after a long and weary invalidism.

She was born in South Denio on the cape, but in infancy her parents moved to Tewksbury, where they resided for some years. The father of Miss Tolman was a man well known among the clergy, for he was an ardent worker in the Christian ministry. He became interested in the work of the late General Armstrong at Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va., for the education of the negro and became a chaplain in that institution. Miss Tolman from early girlhood showed a deep interest for those less fortunate than herself and especially the negroes and also in the peoples across the water who had not the Christian religion.

Miss Tolman was prepared for college in private schools and graduated from Vassar college. She taught school in Rockford, Ill., and other places, including a private school at Hampton, Va., which was known as the "Model School."

About thirty years ago the Tolmans came to Arlington, drawn here by their daughter, Dr. Julia Tolman, who had selected Arlington to begin the practice of medicine. The parents of Miss Tolman, also the younger sister of the family, Florence, have since passed away.

Miss Tolman was one of those rare characters. A lover of the beautiful, especially in nature. She knew the birds and flowers. Her artistic and appreciative nature often expressed itself in poetry. Some of these have been assembled in a book published under the title, "To a Summer Cloud." She had been an active member of the Orthodox Congregational church, where for many years, she had a large class in the church school. She also had served in the Bradshaw Missionary Association connected with the church. Her interest outside the church, found expression in her activities in the Arlington Woman's Club, of which she was a charter member, a past member of its board and until her death, the club's historian. She also was affiliated with the Searchlight club.

The funeral was held Monday, at the late home. Rev. Don Ivan Patch, minister of the Orthodox Congregational church read passages of scripture. Rev. Samuel C. Bushnell, pastor emeritus of the church and a long time friend of the family, came from his home in New Haven, Conn., to pay a tribute to the memory of this splendid woman. It was beautifully expressed as was the prayer offered by him. Mr. Bushnell read poems written by Miss Tolman, closing with the one entitled "Resignation." The flowers were choice. The body was taken to Tewksbury that afternoon for burial in the family lot. Besides Dr. Tolman, the deceased is survived by a sister, Miss Olivia Tolman, who also makes her home at the family residence.

special attraction on the program. Miss Martha Powell accompanied Miss Moody at the piano with rare ease and ability. Mrs. Edwin L. Allen was the accompanist for Miss Berthold, and gave her usual willing service acceptably.

Mrs. Curtis A. Waterman, president of Arlington Woman's club, opened the evening with a cleverly worded speech in which she outlined the purpose of the club in providing the idea of a Community orchestra and paid a graceful compliment to Miss Grace Pierce and the director.

Later in the evening, Miss Pierce was called to the stage by the president and in her inimitable way expressed her delight in having seen brought to fruition a dream long hoped for. That she loves Arlington and the pupils in her school, was apparent in Miss Pierce's every utterance, especially when she likened it to the "Kingdom of Heaven."

Mr. Franklin P. Hawkes, principal of the Junior High West, followed with a testimonial expressed in a substantial sum of money, to the director, Mr. Perkins, from the members of the orchestra, to which Mr. Perkins responded. Mr. Hawkes also paid a beautiful tribute to Miss Pierce for the music work she is doing in our schools and made a plea for the townspeople to continue to support her in her work, which means untold benefit to the children in our public schools interested in music who some day may be a part of Arlington Symphony orchestra.

The personnel of the orchestra is as follows:—
Violins—Peter Hurstak, concert master; Olive Doe, Stella Marek Cushing, Evelyn Swan, Helen O'Brien, Alice Holmes, Mary Sheen, William Custer, Arthur B. Hill, Mrs. C. J. Bailey, Mr. M. I. Foley, Marion McKinnon, A. Kearney, Bernadine Brooks, Laura Finley, Arthur H. Hill.

The choir will be assisted by Mr. George Boynton the well known tenor and Mr. Kenneth McLeod, baritone, well known to Arlington people.

ARLINGTON SENIOR AND JUNIOR
High School Orchestra And Band
Give A Creditable Concert.

The general public was invited to the Senior High school auditorium Friday evening of last week to hear a concert program by the Senior and Junior High school orchestra and band. Many availed themselves of the opportunity of hearing what these young musicians have accomplished under the careful training of their musical instructors, all supervised by Miss Grace Gordon Pierce, musical director in our public schools.

Miss Pierce is to be congratulated on having such splendid assistants in her work. Each seems to have caught the enthusiasm of their leader who, in turn, have incited their pupils to work with that intelligence that showed its splendid result on last Friday evening. There is the making in these three musical organizations a Arlington's Symphony orchestra, in the near future, if the instructions so splendidly grounded, are continued.

The High School double quartet gave variety to the program by their group of songs.

There was no admission charged, but opportunity was given to contribute to a fund that will be used to purchase musical instruments that can be loaned to pupils who show special musical talent, to be used while they are in school. One hundred and thirty dollars was collected.

Before giving the last number of the program, Mr. Chester A. Moody, Supt. of the schools, expressed his gratification in seeing so many interested parents and friends present, and also spoke of the work that the band and orchestras are doing. Mr. Franklin P. Hawkes, principal of the Junior High West, also made a few remarks, as did Mr. John O. Matthews, principal of the Junior High Center.

Next Tuesday an elementary orchestra will begin and the pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades are included. Lessons will be given at the High School by Mr. T. D. Perkins, beginning Tuesday and a portion of the money raised will be used to hire instruments for those pupils who are unable to buy instruments at this time.
